Nā Kai ‘Ewalu Storage Agreement

By signing below, you agree to the terms and conditions set forth by Nā Kai ‘Ewalu and the Board of Directors (BOD) as seen appropriate to ensure additional safety and security for NKE grounds, equipment, membership and storage including OC-1/OC-2 canoes. Failure to comply with the below regulations may result in fines up to and including the expense to re-key all hale locks plus replacement keys in an amount to be determined by the BOD.

1. This Agreement shall be valid for one (1) year. The storage period shall begin on January 1, 2022 and terminate on December 31, 2022. Must be an NKE member at HOALOHA PLUS or above, or a 2021 season coach.
2. During the storage period, Nā Kai ‘Ewalu shall not be responsible for any maintenance, upkeep, damage, theft, loss, or other costs, foreseeable or not, caused by weather, acts of vandalism, or otherwise, associated with storage of any property stored at Na Kai ‘Ewalu Canoe Club’s hale. Storage of canoes and other personal property at Nā Kai ‘Ewalu’s hale at the canoe/property owner’s own risk.
3. You are the sole “owner” of the key provided to you and only you shall use the key to gain access to the NKE hale and grounds. If the key has been provided to you specifically for access to canoe storage, then that is to be your only use. All key holders are prohibited from any additional use of the hale unless previously approved by the BOD.
4. Duplication of your key is prohibited. If it is determined that you have provided either yourself or others with a duplicated key, the fines referenced in this agreement may be assessed.
5. If your key is lost or stolen, it is your responsibility to contact a member of the BOD so appropriate corrective action may be taken. If a re-key is deemed necessary, a non-refundable fee of $150 will be required to obtain a new key.
6. Your key is to be returned to the BOD upon the following:
  - a) Permanent removal of canoe from storage at the hale
  - b) Relinquishment or termination of “Coach” status from NKE
  - c) Relinquishment or termination of a seat on the BOD

Failure to return your key will result in forfeiture of key deposit and possible billing for hale re-key.

By signing this agreement, you agree unconditionally to the foregoing provisions.
